How to apply:

The applicant is asked to submit a letter containing the following information to the Bursary Committee by Friday, May 16th, 2025.

- Applicants name, home address, email address, and phone number.
- Describe reasons for choosing this area of study.
- Describe how the bursary will assist in furthering the applicants' post-secondary education.

- List experiences and/or achievements relevant to your artistic development.
- Provide any additional information on relevant work experience, volunteer activity, or projects. Include any additional information that you believe would assist the Bursary Selection Committee in making its decision. While marks are important, they may not be the deciding factor in the selection.
- Names and contact information of two supporting references (teachers, employers).
- Copy of letter of acceptance from the post-secondary institution that you will be attending.
- Mail or email the completed application letter with supporting documentation to: Helen White and Donalda MacIsaac

Application Review and Award Process

- A bursary committee will review, in confidence, all applications. The CCS will advise the recipient of the $1,000 bursary by early June 2025. Only the successful applicant of the award will be notified.
- The recipient of the Bursary must agree to have their name and picture posted on the CCS Website as the winner of this year's bursary.
- In the event the applicant discontinues the course or takes a leave of absence from the course, he/she may have to repay a certain percentage of the bursary received in that academic year.

We look forward to hearing from you and receiving your applications.

Thank you,
Board of Directors of the Cobequid Cultural Society
Helen White, Secretary
